11.36 (11) The Muzrai Commissioner agrees with the opinion expressed by Mr. Madhava Rao as D.C. in his letter addressed to Govt. on 12th July 1934, and he has stated that no case is made out for the grant of the two special birudus namely 'Chattaris' and 'Chamara' and recommends taking into consideration the appeal made by the Sthanikas of the Swamijala that the three ordinary birudus namely Trisula, Nandidhwaja, and Kavijandya which are the distinctive marks of a Jinajeeta Basti might be granted. In this connection Govt. attention is invited to order of the Govt. dated 7th Feb. 1938 fixing certain birudus for the said Basti, and it is a point for consideration how far the prestige of the Basti has in any way been enhanced since the passing of the said order to warrant the grant of the three 'birudus' without any kind of objection from the other Basthis. As seen from the proceedings of the

GENERAL SECRETARY.
20 OCT. 1936
received 21/10/36

SIR,

Prayer of the disciples of the Sri Melinagavi Mutt at Sivaganga for certain additional birudus for the Swamigalu.

Adverting to G.O.No.1030-40/Muz.151-34-6 dated 7th February 1935 passing orders in the matter of the grant of a Rahadari to the Swamigalu of the Sri Melinagavi Mutt at Sivaganga, I have the honor to state that a deputation of the disciples of the Mutt waited on me on 1st October 36 and presented the accompanying petition bringing to notice that ~~certain~~ arrangements have been made for the Swamigalu to start on his tour on the ensuing Vijayadasami day and praying that for reasons explained, the

(i) Chattris
(ii) Chamara
(iii) Kavipata
(iv) Trisula and
(v) Nandidhwaja

use of the marginally noted birudus by the Swamigalu may be permitted. The deputanists submit that Chattris and Chamaras though classed as special birudus form essential paraphernalia of all processions of deities or mathadhipathis and that Kavipata, Trisula and Nandidhwaja are distinctive marks of a Lingayet institution.

2. As already stated, the Mutt is a Muzrai institution having been endowed with a cash grant of Rs 203-9-0 per annum and if the inscriptions published in pages 47 and 48 of the Epigraphia Karnatika of the Bangalore District are of any evidentiary value, the Mutt is at least four centuries old. According to the classification made in the Rahadari granted to the Sri Balehonnur Mutt, white, red, green and yellow chattris have been classed as s p e c i a l and Nandidhwaja, Trisula and Kavipata (same as Kavijhanaya) as ordinary birudus. For convenience of reference a list showing the names of Lingayet Mutts which have been permit the use of all these or only a few of them is enclosed.

3. In view of what is stated by my predecessor (Mr. N. Madhava Rau) in his letter dated 12th July 1934 addressed to the Financial Secretary and his U.O. reply dated 2nd January 1935, I am of opinion that no case has been made out for the grant of the two special birudus notwithstanding the fact that they are being enjoyed by other Mutts situated within and outside the State. Having regard to the earnest appeal made by the deputanists on behalf of the Swamigalu and to the fact that the remaining three ordinary birudus, viz., Trisula, Nandidhwaja and Kavijandya are distinctive marks of a Lingayet Mutt, I recommend that their use by this Mutt may be permitted in addition to those sanctioned in the Government Order referred to above.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Muzrai Commissioner.
